

17th USENIX SECURITY SYMPOSIUM

SAN JOSE, CA JULY 28–AUGUST 1, 2008

A five-day tutorial and refereed technical program for security professionals, system and network administrators, and researchers.

Co-Located Workshops

EVT '08

2008 USENIX/ACCURATE Electronic Voting Technology Workshop, July 28–29, 2008

CSET '08

Workshop on Cyber Security Experimentation and Test, July 28, 2008

WOOT '08

2nd USENIX Workshop on Offensive Technologies, July 28, 2008

HotSec '08

3rd USENIX Workshop on Hot Topics in Security, July 29, 2008

MetriCon 3.0

Third Workshop on Security Metrics, July 29, 2008

2 Days of In-Depth Tutorials Taught by Industry Experts, Including:

- Bruce Potter on Botnets: Understanding and Defense
- Simson L. Garfinkel on Computer Forensics

Keynote Address

"Dr. Strangevote or: How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Paper Ballot," by Debra Bowen, California Secretary of State

Technical Program

27 refereed papers presenting the best new research in a variety of subject areas, including voting and trusted systems, privacy, and botnet detection

Invited Talks by Experts, Including:

- "Hackernomics," by Hugh Thompson, Chief Security Strategist, People Security
- "Political DDoS: Estonia and Beyond," by Jose Nazario, Senior Security Engineer, Arbor Networks
- "The Ghost in the Browser and Other Frightening Stories About Web Malware," by Niels Provos, Google, Inc.

SAVE!

Register by July 14, 2008, and save!

www.usenix.org/security08/hdj