AUTHORIZATION AND LICENSE TO PUBLISH

A major mission of the USENIX Association is to provide for the creation and dissemination of knowledge. In order to facilitate this process, USENIX allows authors to retain ownership of the copyright to their works, requesting only that it be granted a nonexclusive right to publish. The USENIX Association also wishes to allow the free reproduction of published material for educational and/or research purposes.

Therefore, the parties agree as follows:

1. Grant of Rights to Publish. You hereby grant to The USENIX Association ("USENIX") nonexclusive rights to publish your presentation provisionally entitled:

Presentation Title: _____

(the "Presentation") and to disseminate the Presentation in printed form, electronically, and in audiovisual formats (the "Rights").

USENIX may wish to disseminate the Presentation (either in tape form or as a live broadcast), to publish overheads or slides and audiovisual content on the USENIX Web server, and to otherwise disseminate the Presentation.

2. Author Retention of Ownership. Other than granting USENIX the Rights set forth above, you retain all right, title and interest in the Presentation. These Rights do not transfer to USENIX any title to or ownership of the Presentation.

3. Warranties. You warrant that:

- a. you are the sole author and owner of the Presentation and the rights pertaining thereto;
- b. USENIX does not need the permission of any other party to exercise the Rights granted herein;
 - c. the Presentation does not contain any libelous or unlawful material;
 - d. the Presentation does not infringe upon the rights of others;
 - e. the Presentation and its contents are original to you;
 - f. if the Presentation contains significant excerpts from other copyrighted materials, written permission from the copyright holders have been obtained, copies are attached to this document, and proper credit has been given in the Presentation.
